

A few years after the Wright Landing, Robert G. Fowler landed his COLE FLYER (or a WRIGHT MODEL B purchased from Orville & Wilbur Wright who had taught him how to fly) in the present location of The Landing Restaurant in Yuma (as shown here) on Oct. 25, 1911. A statue along with 2 markers commemorate this event.